

December 2022 Edition

Dear Kohut Family,

We hope this issue of the Kronikle finds you well and enjoying the season. It's hard to believe the green grass and beautiful fall foliage have already given way to some peaceful white snow, but the changing seasons bring us closer to summer and that's always exciting.

Dan & I are about to fly across the country to attend the wedding of a former camper-turned-counselor; I recently received an email from a former camper from Peru who wants to send her child to Kamp next summer; last summer we had a delightful new camper from California whose mother was a counselor more than a decade ago. As we take note of a number of Kohut milestones this year, these are just a few examples of the on-going meaningful Kamp connections we have been privileged to have over the years. In an increasingly anxious and fragmented world, we are told the value of human connection is paramount. Kohut bonds are strong and we are very appreciative – especially around the holidays!

Thank you again for the kind notes and feedback about Summer 2022. It was indeed an exceptionally wonderful summer! We hope you are enjoying the memories and pictures posted online and on our 2022 Daily Update page. Please read below for some more opportunities to relive the magic with our 2022 Kohut Slideshows and the 2022 yearbook, the Kaleidoscope (coming in the mail soon!).

Thanks also to all of you who have re-enrolled for 2023 and a warm welcome to all of you new enrollees. Enrollment is booming, so if you would like to join us please enroll as soon as possible to secure your spot. Look for a little fun Kohut gift in the mail as an extra reminder of the fun to come.

Wishing you a very happy holiday season and a wonderful new year,

Lisa and Dan

Kohut News!

We love seeing and hearing what the Kohut Family is up to in the “off-season.” Keep in touch and let us know how you’re doing so we can share with the rest of the Kohut Family on Kamp’s social media platforms and future Kronikle Issues!

These past few months might’ve had the most unofficial Kohut reunions on record across various college campuses and major cities! The campus of University of Michigan has been particularly busy with Kohut gatherings. A few weeks ago Michigan students Sam Hedeman, Jessica Levine, and Meghan Young hosted Robby Schnitzer and Casey Feins for a memorable weekend of football and fun!

Casey, Robby, Sam, Jessica, and Meghan

Earlier in the semester the trio hosted another group of Summer 2022 counselors for a football game. Matty Corcoran, Emilia Foot, and Jennifer Brady, all from the United Kingdom, thoroughly enjoyed this most classic of American college experiences!

After her trip across the US, Emilia started her studies in Music Theatre at the renowned Leeds Conservatoire!

When they returned home, Matty and Jennifer had another Kohut meet up with Kim Murray in Edinburgh!

Speaking of Matty, he recently caught up with Carly and told her that his experience at Kamp and working with kids in 2022 was so impactful that he’s now considering changing his major from business to psychology.

Fencing instructor Maria Torres reports that she’s doing well and is counting down the days until she studies in Rome next

Sparring partner Jack Plumer is ready to use the many skills he’s acquired at Kamp when he is a student teacher in Fall 2023. He’s also making progress with his final thesis about how gender and class affect food choices.

HUGE congratulations to former counselors Holly Waller & Brontë Bergquist-O’Sullivan on their recent wedding! In attendance were fellow former counselors Niamh Jarrold and Cyn Whittaker.

Former camper turned culinary arts instructor Jackie Benjes has had a great semester at Brown University. Jackie ran into her former bunkmate Dana Herrnschmidt at Dana’s improv class! Jackie is eagerly awaiting her semester abroad next year at St. Andrews in Scotland. We’re sure she’ll meet up with many of her fellow counselors while in the UK. In the meantime, she continues to reconnect with her Kamp friends. She recently met up with Cole Yellin and Casey Feins.

Tommy Benjes let us know that he’s doing great and has just started working at a software marketing startup close to home.

Next time you’re driving down Kohut Road, you may notice an opening in the forest that wasn’t there last summer! This winter, Kamp is working with a forest management company to improve the overall health and biodiversity of Kohut’s woodlands for future generations.

The view down Kohut Road isn’t the only update around Kamp. Bob and Tom have been busy building new docks. A bunch of new kayaks from LL Bean were added to our existing fleet of kayaks and a new Sunfish sailboat will gliding across Thompson Lake in 2023!

Another former camper turned counselor, Rachel Saltman reports that she is having a great semester and has developed an major wasn't enough, Meghan is also working towards two minors in Political Science and English!

Lisa, Dan, & Rory had a lovely lunch in October with Kohut alum Howard Ockman (father of counselor Caleb) and Andrew Kane. The hours flew by as Howard and Andrew recounted stories from their time at Kamp in the 1960s.

Lisa and Carly traveled to Washington D.C. in October to attend the CIEE BridgeUSA forum. There, they met with lawmakers and advocated for the crucial cultural exchange program that allows for our terrific counselors to attend Kamp each summer!

interest in working in politics. Rachel is looking forward to an upcoming trip to Spain where she hopes to see Maria Torres. Rachel also let us know that she hopes to study abroad in the UK next spring.

When he's not hosting his fellow Kohut counselors, Sam Hedeman has had a busy fall semester. He continues to work towards his Performing Arts Management course while also rehearsing for his Musical Theatre program's production of Little Shop of Horrors.

Fellow wolverine Meghan Young reports that she is doing well and is making headway towards her Sociology major with a concentration in Law, Justice, and Social Change. As if coursework for one

Next time you're reading The Irish Times, you may be reading an article written by former newspaper counselor Shauna Bowers. Shauna was recently in Lebanon reporting on Syrian refugee camps - way to go, Shauna!

Former counselor Lauren Gerrity met up with former campers Elodie, Roderick, and Marisa Priester in Brussels, Belgium! The gang reminisced about their summers at Kamp from over 10 years ago. Talking about Kamp got Elodie excited about the idea of becoming a counselor in 2023!

Across the Channel a group of counselors (Silvia Colell, Emma Reason, Lottie Grafton, Rachel Thornton, Chloe McAulay, and Mads North) from Summers 2016 & 2017 reconnected for a festive weekend in London, UK. It just

His favorite color is green, he would eat chicken nuggets for every meal if he could, and his favorite movies and tv shows to watch are on YouTube Kids.

2nd grader Calvin S from Austin, TX is counting down the days until his first night at sleepaway camp and when he gets to eat s'mores at Kamp! There's hardly a dull moment in Calvin's home. He has a 5-year-old younger sister named Cora, a 3-year-old younger brother named Andy, a 15-year-old dog named Riley, 4 (!) chickens named Golden Slide, Snowy, Elsa, and Chips, AND a rooster named Brownie! goes to show how the friendships and memories you’ll make at Kamp truly last a lifetime!

That wasn’t the only Kohut gathering in London this fall! Earlier in October, a large group of counselors spanning nearly 10+ years at Kamp reconnected for an afternoon. With Eoghan Marah, Niamh Jarrold, Ellen Laird, Morven Stokes, India Butler, Ciaran Wharton, and Brian Barrins in attendance, we’re sure the gathering included countless stories from their many cumulative summers at Kamp! If that wasn’t enough, some of them even celebrated Halloween together, costumes and all! With Brian, Eoghan, Ciaran, India, and Morven dressed up as Scooby Doo characters, we think we know who to call if that becomes the theme for a future Olympics/Kollege Days!

A bit closer to Kamp and Maine, campers Madison M and Charlotte C met up in NYC to explore the city and enjoy some gelato!

Wyatt L & Isaac A ran into each other at a cross country meet this fall! They loved seeing each other and are now texting

Excerpt from the Kronikle
Volume XVI, Vol. 3, July 23, 1926

Editorial:

Among the suggestions that have come to our attention as subjects for an editorial this week is the old sad song of kamp spirit. Kamp spirit is a force that can make summer a memory never to be forgotten but kamp spirit is never found in songs or cheers or catch words or phrases or any thing of that kind.

The kamper with genuine kamp spirit is the boy who feels deeply the loyalty and affection that every boy should feel toward the object that adds to his life the greatest amount of enjoyment and happiness. Where else but in a community such as is to be found on Thompson's Lake can one find a more diversified yet coherent and unified group. From distant parts of the Republic they come, bent on a single purpose—to make the summer pay for the tortures of winter. In close communion necessarily there grows up a sense of strength, of solidarity which will show itself when any intrusion is felt.

George Alexander Kohut at Kamp c. 1910s

Kamp is more than a group of tents and a few bungalows. It is more than a Faculty and three directors. It is more than a chance to swim and sleep and eat far from noise and dust. It is itself a spirit, a force, an urge, what you will, that extends through the winter and returns again and again more poignantly as life goes on and the light begins to fade.

We've known for a long time the benefits of working at a summer camp! Now, more than ever, we are seeing articles from major media companies highlighting the positive, lasting impacts working at a summer camp can have. A recent article by Forbes listed the "Top 10 Most In-Demand Skills For The Next 10 Years." While not specifically mentioning summer camp, these 10 are definitely skills our counselors acquire after a working summer at Kamp:
